The End of the Highway Rat!

A rat who has been stealing food has gone!

"The Highway Rat" spent a long time stealing food.

He took food from animals as they went along the road.

The animals were getting very hungry and sad.

But now the Highway Rat has gone for ever.

A rabbit said "I am so happy."

Travellers have seen the last of this rat.

The Highway Rat took a nut from a squirrel and a leaf from some ants.

He also took hay from his horse.

But now he has gone.

Travellers will be safe on the road again.
